Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

EXHIBIT 1

Documents are requested for the period of time beginning January 1, 2003 up to the present (the “Time Period”) concerning TASER International, Inc. (“TASR”), CUSIP number 87651B104, and shares of its common stock (NASDAQ: TASR) and any other Security (as such term is defined below) which references, is derived from or whose value is determined based upon the common stock of TASR (the “Securities”). Capitalized terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the National Securities Clearing Corporation Rules and Procedures unless otherwise defined in this Subpoena.

DEFINITIONS

1. The terms “Security,” “Securities,” and “TASR Securities” mean any note, common stock, preferred stock, treasury stock, put, call, straddle, option, derivative, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, transferable share, investment contract, group or index of securities (including any interest therein or based on the value thereof) or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a “security;” or any certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, which references, which is derived from, or whose value is determined based upon the common stock of TASR. All of the foregoing interests are securities whether or not evidenced by a written document.

2. “Documents” means all writings and things of any nature by which information may be stored or communicated, including originals and all non-identical copies and drafts thereof, in your possession, custody, or control, regardless of where located, including, without limitation, contracts, agreements, memoranda, notes, correspondence, letters, e-mails, communications, telegrams, teletypes, telecopies, transmissions, messages (including, but not limited to, records, reports, or memoranda of telephone calls and conversations), reports, studies, summaries, analyses, minutes, diaries, calendars, logs, notes, agenda, bulletins, notices, circulars, announcements, instructions, charts, tables, manuals, brochures, schedules, price lists, records, orders, invoices, statements, bills, books of account, ledgers, statistics, accounting, and financial statements, forecasts, work papers, notebooks, data sheets, translations, photographs, drawings, tape recordings, computer-stored information which can be retrieved or placed into reasonably usable form, written communications and written evidence of oral communications, and any other “document” from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, by you through detection devices into reasonably usable form. In all cases where originals and/or non-identical copies are not available, “documents” also means identical copies of original documents and copies of non-identical copies.

3. The term “Participant” or “Participants” refers to all entities both foreign and domestic including, but not limited to, NSCC members and participants, DTCC members and participants, broker-dealers, market makers, banks, correspondent banks, custodians, hedge funds, funds of funds, trusts, trust company service providers, clearing firms and non-clearing firms (referred to as Commission Bill firms, specialists and $2 brokers that trade on the New York Stock Exchange, American Stock Exchange, or other exchanges, but are not NSCC members), all of which held/or transferred, or transacted any stock positions in the security during the time period.

4. “And” as well as “or” shall be construed disjunctively or conjunctively so as to bring within the scope of each request all documents, writings, and things which might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

5. The terms “record”, “reflect”, “relate to”, and “concern” are intended to have the broadest possible scope so that all documents, including drafts, are included if they in any way constitute, contain, pertain to, or mention the indicated subject or document. Whenever a document provides part, but less than all, of the information requested, such document should be produced along with all other related documents.

6. The term “communication” includes, but is not limited to, all inquiries, discussions, conversations, negotiations, agreements, understandings, meetings, conferences, interviews, telephone conversations, correspondence, notes, minutes, memoranda, telegrams, telexes, electronic mail messages, facsimiles, advertisements, or other forms of oral or written intercourse, however transmitted.

7. The terms “you” and “DTCC” shall mean the Depository Trust and Clearing Company, as well as its parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, predecessors, assigns, or successors, both foreign and domestic, and any of its present or former liquidators, officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys and/or other persons acting on its behalf. This specifically includes, but is not limited to, the National Securities Clearing Corporation, OMGEO LLC and The Depository Trust Company.

8. "Time Period" refers to January 1, 2003 to and through the present.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Documents attached to other documents or materials shall not be separated unless sufficient records are kept to permit reconstruction of the grouping or context in which the document is maintained in the ordinary course of your business.

2. These document requests specifically seek electronic records (e.g., email, word processing documents, PowerPoints, Excel spreadsheets). You shall produce all such records regardless of whether they are maintained or stored on an active, storage or archived system. Thus, these requests specifically include, but are not limited to, active, near-line and off-line electronic records, as well as electronic records stored on back-up tapes, floppy disc, compact disc, disaster tapes, magnetic tapes or any other medium used to store or archive email. Documents that exist in electronic format must also be produced in their native electronic format, with an identification of the hardware and software necessary to convert the data from machine-readable to human readable form.

3. Unless expressly stated otherwise, each of the document requests seeks documents from January 1, 2003, to the present.

4. If any responsive document cannot be produced in its entirety, you are requested to produce the document to the fullest extent possible, specifying the reasons for your inability to produce the remainder of the document and describing to the fullest extent possible the contents of the un-produced portion.

5. If any responsive documents have been destroyed or discarded, each document is to be identified in writing.

6. If you object to any request or any portion thereof, you are required to state the ground for any such objection in full.

7. With respect to any document or any portion of any document withheld because of a claim of privilege, state in writing the basis for your claim of privilege with respect to such document or portion of document.

8. If you contend it would be unreasonably burdensome to obtain and provide all of the documents or information called for in response to any request, then as to that request you should produce all documents or information available without unreasonable burden, and describe with particularity the efforts made to secure any documents or information the provision of which you claim would be an unreasonable burden.

DOCUMENTS REQUESTED

1. All Documents relating, concerning, reflecting, or evidencing the execution, clearing, lending, borrowing or settling of trades in TASF Securities or the positions in TASF Securities held by market participants on the Omgeo LLC and/or the ID System.

2. All Documents relating, concerning, reflecting, or evidencing the execution, clearing, lending, borrowing or settling of trades in TASF Securities or the positions in TASF Securities held by market participants through the Correspondent Clearing Service.

3. All Documents relating, concerning, reflecting, or evidencing the positions in TASF securities held by market participants.

4. All Documents relating, concerning, reflecting, or evidencing failures to deliver or failures to receive in TASF securities, including "Market Maker Reports" in which a failure-to-deliver or failure-to-receive in TASF securities is identified.
